

Campaigning for Election

The Union cannot and will not be involved in candidates' campaigns for office. Any campaigner, whether a candidate or not, should contact their supervisor or other appropriate member of management in order to gain access to company property in the customary way. The Union office will not be doing any clearances for campaigning. The Company should be even-handed.